anyway i noticed these things on tv too but more recently rare diseases and paediatric drugs have started to shape some aspects of the sector the pre-pharmacy program is not a degree program but if students decide not to transfer after two years, they will be well along the path toward earning a b.s it would be one of jamaica's few sustainable industries.